Hotel Mulia, Jakarta

Under the invitation of the Indonesian National Shipowners' Association (INSA), managing partner Navinder Singh and partners Peter Doraisamy and Colin Jarraw hosted a seminar entitled 'Ship Finance from a Singapore Perspective' to INSA members at Hotel Mulia in Jakarta.

The seminar was held in joint collaboration with Singapore-based finance company Caterpillar Financial Services Asia Pte Ltd whose senior managers also delivered a talk. Caterpillar's authorized Indonesian dealer PT Trakindo Utama was also present to give a short presentation.

The seminar was graced by senior officials from INSA including the Chairman, Mr. Johnson W Sutjipto, and the Chief of Joint Cooperation and Overseas Affairs, Mr. Djoni Sutji. Much to the delight of the participants, managing partner Navinder Singh delivered his segment of the seminar in Bahasa Indonesia.

The seminar was a resounding success with a large turnout of participants. After the seminar the participants were invited to a lunch held at the hotel for a networking session.

Navin & Co. LLP wishes to acknowledge the tireless efforts made by Mr. Djoni and his team at INSA in organizing and making possible the seminar and the Firm looks forward to a continued relationship and to future events held in Indonesia.
