Peter Doraisamy delivers maritime law seminar at NYSBA meeting in Singapore

The Firm's partner, Peter Doraisamy, was invited to co-chair the maritime panel of the 2009 Seasonal Meeting of the New York State Bar Association (International Section) held in Singapore at the Swisshotel from 26-29 October 2009. The 2009 Meeting, designed to serve as an "Asian Summit", was well attended by participants from the US as well as Asia. Peter delivered a seminar on recent developments in maritime and admiralty law in Singapore and also facilitated a lively discussion on the recent demise of the Rule B attachment of EFTs passing through the New York banking system.
